

Let's talk...

Kentuckians Affected by Suicide

*End
the Silence*

KENTUCKY

Suicide Prevention Group

The Kentucky Suicide Prevention Group cordially invites you to the Kentucky Suicide Prevention Week Kickoff at 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 4, at the Capital Plaza Hotel Ballroom, 405 Wilkinson Blvd., in Frankfort.

This event marks the beginning of the "Let's Talk" public awareness campaign encouraging Kentuckians affected by suicide to end their silence.

- Find out what you can do to end the silence and reduce suicide and suicide attempts
- See the debut of a compelling new video featuring Kentuckians affected by suicide
- Pick up community action materials to use in your hometown

Emcee: WHAS radio talk show host Francene Cucinello

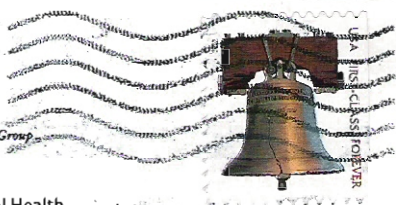

RSVP by Aug. 21 to Cheryl Ligon at cheryl.ligon@ky.gov or (502) 564-4456.

Complimentary parking is available at the hotel's underground facility accessible from Clinton Street or at WHAS's parking garage across from the hotel.

LOUISVILLE KY 402

Jan Ulrich
Department for Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities and Addiction Services
100 Fair Oaks Lane 4E-D
Frankfort, KY 40621

Doug Stern
7600 Landor Ave
Louisville KY 40205